CRAZY RIDERS ADVENTURE TOURS

Himachal tourism is an attraction amongst travellers, who like to explore serene and off-beat destinations, especially in winters. Spiti, being one such winter place, is gaining popularity, with people commuting in groups as well as solo. Bike and SUV tour packages are at an incline at an equal proportion. The most common winter itinerary that lures people is a 7 night/8 day package which not only allows to visit the majestic Spiti, but, also allows for a relaxed travel option. Spiti, which means "The Middle Land," is appropriately named as it is situated between Tibet and India, offering a unique cultural and geographical experience. Its remote location and challenging and treacherous terrain make it a haven for adventure enthusiasts. One of the unique aspects of a Spiti tour is the remoteness of the region. Once you leave from Shimla, you'll find a lack of fast-food chains and urban amenities, which adds to the adventure and immersion in the natural beauty of the area. Spiti Valley is predominantly inhabited by Buddhist communities, and you'll encounter monasteries and cultural elements that reflect this influence. The region's culture and spirituality add depth to the travel experience.
